Installation:

An automatic installer is not provided with this release. The zip file you've downloaded contains executable files for Windows x64 and Linux. Please move the files to the appropriate locations and let your preferred host program scan for new plugins.

Usage:

- Drag and drop an IR .wav file (amp or reverb) on the grey drop area
- Or click the grey drop area and choose a IR .wav file
- Mix between wet (left) and dry (right) signals using the knob
- Recent files are added to the list and remembered (up to 100)
- Click a list item to reload a file
- If a file can't be found, it's automatically removed from the list
- Right-click on the list to remove one item or clear the entire list

Impulse files:

The zip file you've downloaded contains a folder with a few experimental impulses sampled from actual gear, including some spring reverb machines. Use these file for your tests or for your music. Find other impulses online or from other publishers.

GSi FREE SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

Thank you for installing and using the GSi Software.

This is a freeware software. It's supplied "AS IS", there is no warranty and no technical support. You can use it in your commercial music projects without limitations, redistribute it under any form (web, magazine...) at NO charge provided that the original archive is not altered. It is fully functional under all of its aspects and no limitations of any kind are applied. The author may not be held responsible for whatever may result as a consequence of its usage.

GSi grants you a limited non-exclusive license to use freeware downloadable for personal, educational, charity, and commercial use, and donations are welcome and entirely optional. If you are using the SOFTWARE free of charge under the terms of this Agreement, you are not entitled to support although we will respond to support requests in case a real problem arises while using our software.

Our freeware is licensed to you in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You represent and warrant that you will not violate any of the requirements of this Agreement and further represent and warrant that:

- You will not, and will not permit others to: (I) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, derive the source code of, modify, or create derivative works from our freeware, or (II) copy, distribute, publicly display, or publicly perform content contained in this freeware other than as expressly authorized by this Agreement.
- You will not use our freeware to engage in or allow others to engage in any illegal activity.
- You will not sell our freeware or charge others for use of it (either for profit or merely to recover your media and distribution costs) whether as a stand-alone product, or as part of a compilation or anthology, without explicit prior written permission.
- You will not use our freeware to engage in any activity that will violate the rights of third parties, including, without limitation, through the use, public display, public performance, reproduction, distribution, or modification of communications or materials that infringe copyrights, trademarks, publicity rights, privacy rights, other proprietary rights, or rights against defamation of third parties.

By using this software you explicitly accept all the terms of this License Agreement.
