

Addendum

The Compressive dll files must be in the same folder as the 'Resources' folder otherwise the plugin will not load

Please note that Compressive Pro contains two pairs of stereo inputs so will not function correctly in host software unable to support this feature.

Additionally, presets containing 'ext' use Compressive Pro's external side chain. Therefore, these presets will only function correctly in host software capable of supporting this feature.